

RESOLUTION NO. 2019-05

Ravenna Township
Dakota County, Minnesota

A RESOLUTION TERMINATING THE RURAL SOLID WASTE COMMISSION

WHEREAS, the Rural Solid Waste Commission (RSWC), a joint powers board established between the thirteen townships and six cities in rural Dakota County have been responsible for developing a common solid waste abatement program on behalf of its defined rural area since 1989; and

WHEREAS, in 2018-2019, County staff engaged RSWC Board Members in a thorough review of the existing program activities to better align with the Dakota County Solid Waste Master Plan (Master Plan); and

WHEREAS, the Master Plan supports a performance-based funding program to assist municipalities with the implementation of landfill abatement programs within their operations and in their communities; and

WHEREAS, board members of the RSWC identified a preferred option to eliminate the current administrative structure of the RSWC while continuing to receive County support for solid waste abatement activities; and

WHEREAS, on August 2, 2019, RSWC board members voted to begin termination proceedings of the RSWC; and

WHEREAS, on September 19, 2019 the Dakota County Township Association recommended termination of the RSWC; and

WHEREAS, Article 10, Subdivision 2 of the Joint Powers Agreement establishing the Rural Solid Waste Commission may be terminated by the written agreement of a majority of governing bodies of the member governmental units.

NOW THERE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE TOWN BOARD OF RAVENNA TOWNSHIP, MINNESOTA, hereby terminates their membership to the RSWC effective January 1, 2020.
